A level headed farmer has recently 'rit a piece" for the paper. In closing up he says: "Now, one more thing and I am done. I know by experience that claims in Thomas county, which they if we pay our merchants what we owe them and then want to buy goods in quantity and pay cash, we can buy as cheap at home, quality considered, as any place in the world; and again, who will buy one of our farms in the vicinity of a village all run down for lack of support? If we want a prosperous town we must keep all the money in it we can."
